

Information & Networking Event:
The 2016 Annual Conference for Local Councils

'Planning for Tomorrow!'

Wednesday 9th March 2016, 9.30am – 4.00pm
President's Suite, St Mary's Stadium
Britannia Road, Southampton, Hampshire SO14 5FP

This event has been designed as suitable learning and development for both officers and councillors in local councils, and for individuals in local authorities and other agencies, working in partnership.

Speakers include;

- The Leader, Hampshire County Council to be invited to open the Conference
- Minister of State for Planning or Director General Neighbourhoods to be invited to give a Keynote Speech
- Government Department of Communities and Local Government commenting on the future of National Planning Policy and Neighbourhood Planning
- NALC outlining its Planning policy and lobbying work in this area
- CPRE presenting on the next decade of planning development in Hampshire, and the big issues
- The Open Space Society commenting on Saving and Supporting our Open Spaces

Plus Workshops on Fracking and Development Control & Enforcement

Offer: The cost is £60 until 1st January 2016, to delegates from member councils only. Bookings and enquires to sue.ramage@eastleigh.gov.uk. Other enquires and bookings welcome at non-discounted rates.

Planning is the most popular topic for councils, and we advise member councils to book places as soon as is possible, as we anticipate this Conference will be a sell-out, at this prestigious venue.
